Sauce Magic For Party Use

Dessert sauces can do wonders for ordinary party fare. They almost magically turn ice cream servings into delicious sundaes, and cakes and puddings of the usual type into extra-rich creations. The secret is in the use of sweetened condensed milk. It cuts the sauce-making time in half, for in the making of this convenience product, sugar is blended with whole milk and then condensed to double richness. Make several types of dessert sauces this time-saving way, and let your guests use a flavor of their own choice. Here is a group of six magic ice cream sauces, developed by the Borden Kitchen.

DeLuxe Chocolate Sauce
(Makes about 1½ cups)

1 (1-oz.) square unsweetened chocolate
1½ cups (15-oz. can) Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk

Melt chocolate in small saucepan or top of double boiler over hot water. Remove from heat. Add sweetened condensed milk. Beat with rotary beater or electric mixer until well blended. Serve warm or cold.

Variations:

DeLuxe Chocolate Peppermint Sauce
Beat into above basic recipe ½ teaspoon peppermint flavoring.

DeLuxe Chocolate Almond Sauce
Beat into above basic recipe ½ teaspoon almond flavoring.

DeLuxe Choco-Peanut Sauce
Beat into above basic recipe ¼ cup homogenized peanut butter.

DeLuxe Mocha Sauce
Beat into above basic recipe 1 tablespoon Borden's Instant Coffee (as it comes from the jar).
